

Press Release – Kim Winston LLP, June 2017

Kim Winston LLP announces the additions of John Letchford as Senior Counsel and Vadim Rodin as Associate, and the admission of Chintan Desai to the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

John Letchford is a registered patent attorney with more than 25 years of progressive experience in intellectual property law and practices in the areas of evaluation, acquisition, transfer and enforcement of intellectual property rights involving e-commerce and the Internet, patents, trademarks, copyrights and trade secrets. Specializing in domestic and foreign patent acquisition in the mechanical, electrical, computer, chemical and business method parts, he has secured several hundred United States and foreign patents on behalf of corporations of all sizes, as well as for universities and individuals.

Prior to joining Kim Winston LLP, John was a Patent Examiner in the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) and worked on the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB). John was responsible for the examination and granting of several hundred United States and international patents in the petroleum, heavy equipment and construction industries.

Vadim Rodin is a registered patent attorney focusing on all phases of patent procurement, patent litigation and client counseling. Prior to joining Kim Winston LLP, Vadim gained valuable experience as a patent associate and assisted in the filing and procurement of copyright, trademarks, and patents.

Vadim has a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Delaware, and earned his J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law.

Chintan Desai, an Associate in the firm's Patent and Trademark practice group, has been admitted to practice in the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Chintan's practice focuses on all phases of patent procurement, trademark prosecution, and client counseling at Kim Winston LLP.

Chintan has a B.S. in Biomedical Engineering from the University of Pennsylvania, and earned his J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law.
